

As a Christian and mother, K-LOVE radio is vital to keeping our community focused on current events happening across the US and the world. This station give the message of hope, binds the human race together, encourages us to focuses on the right choices and is truly positive in the music and messages they broadcast. They are truly making an impact with our teens also! Please keep KLOVE on the air!